A presenter must reference the Presenter's Check List at the end of this document to ensure that all tasks are completed and to ensure timelines are met.

WORKING WITH A QUALIFIED JUDGE

Your Chapter Steward should pair you with a qualified judge to help guide you through this process. If this is not done ask your Chapter Steward to assign a qualified judge to assist you. The qualified judge is there to help and guide you, but it is your responsibility to prepare the Presentation Notes and wine flight.

Keep in touch with the Chapter Steward and your assigned qualified judge as you prepare the session to keep them informed of progress, arrange for funding of wine purchases, or for any assistance if problems occur.

Preparing a presentation is not an onerous task if you follow these instructions. For assistance in clarifying these notes please consult the qualified judge assigned to assist you through this process or contact the Guild Master or your Chapter Steward.

The BCAWA class will be assigned to you up to 6 months ahead of the session. At a minimum, you will need to start 2 months before the tasting date. Many presenters start well in advance (from 4 to 6 months) to ensure they have sufficient time to research, select, obtain approvals, purchase, package and ship wines and notes, etc.

RESEARCH WINES and PREPARE THE PRESENTATION NOTES

The presentation notes will inform session attendees about the characteristics they should be looking for in good examples of this BCABA class of wine. These notes must be prepared and distributed at least three weeks before the presentation takes place. Refer to the Presenter's Check List on the last page for timelines and duties.

Review previous Presentation Notes on the Guild website. This is part of your research on the assigned class and benefits your learning process. Nobody, neither you nor your readers, will learn anything by just copying and recycling someone else's notes.

The notes must start with the definition of the Class from the BCABA Competition Handbook. Refer to the BCABA website at: www.bcawa.ca

The notes should include information about the grapes used to make the wine, where they are grown, terroir, history of the wines, wine making techniques, typical aromas and flavours, relevant facts, etc. The notes should be 4 to 5 pages in length. Use the internet and books as the basis of your research. Keep in mind that one of the goals is for you to learn a lot about this class and then pass on your knowledge to others. Self-study is one of the keys to becoming a well-qualified judge.

If you are putting together a wine flight for one of the following classes:

- Other Dry White
- Other Dry Red
- Country
- Aromatic White

your Presenter's Notes should include varietal (and blend) information, without disclosing which bottle contains which grape varietal (or blend). Refer to the section entitled Package the Wines for instructions on how to disclose the subject information on the paper sleeves.

GUILD MASTER APPROVAL OF THE PRESENTATION NOTES

Upon completion of the notes, send a copy to the Guild Master for approval prior to distribution. Use the template for Presentation Notes as a guide to ensure adequate information is included.

PUBLICATION OF PRESENTATION NOTES ON WEBSITE

Once your Presentation Notes are approved, e-mail a copy (in PDF format) to each of the Chapter Stewards and (as a Word document) to the Guild Webmaster for publication to the Guild website. Email your document to: submitbcgwj@gmail.com

RESEARCH AND SELECT THE PROPOSED WINES:

The qualified judge should be assisting the Presenter with the wine selection. Ensure you have pre-tasted each wine selected or speak to a qualified person that has tasted it to determine what medal ranking it might get.

Select 8 to 9 wines (typically 8) that includes one duplicate and at least one Taster. The duplicates are generally lower priced wines (Bronze medal or Silver medal) to keep the cost down.

Note that the duplicate could be the same wine as the Taster. Some classes may require 2 tasters to illustrate certain attributes of the class (i.e. oaked and non-oaked). The flight wines will range in ranking from “no medal” to “Gold medal” with the Taster being in the middle (as a low to mid-Silver medal wine). Remember, the Taster(s) should be a good representation of the class but not the best wine. The taster should be a midrange benchmark so that the best wine in the flight will be obviously better than the Taster(s) and the worst wine will be worse than the Taster(s).

If possible, try to include a faulty wine or a homemade wine in the flight. If acquiring a flawed or faulty wine, you should ascertain what the fault or flaw is to assist in the maintenance / training session as well as to assist the Guild Statistician.

OBTAIN GUILD MASTER APPROVAL OF PROPOSED WINES

E-mail a list of the proposed wines with prices and expected medal to the Guild Master for approval prior to purchasing any wines. Use the Wine List template on the Guild website as a guide to ensure consistency.

CREATE THE WINE LIST

Once the Guild Master approves your proposed wine selection, determine the tasting order. Your qualified judge can help you with this process. From this tasting order, create the Wine List. Please be sure to use the Wine List template provided. This list should include the wine identifier (T1, A, B, etc.), the SKU number, the price, country of origin, and any other pertinent info such as reviewed wine scores, awards won, tasting notes etc. The Wine List is generally one page in length, landscape orientation. If you include a faulty wine in the flight, the fault should be listed.

PURCHASE THE WINES

The cost of each session should not exceed $250 per Chapter. The Guild Master may authorize an upper limit of $300 for special tastings.

You will need 3 bottles of each wine that you select (1 for each of the 3 Chapters). Don't forget to get enough paper bags for all of your bottles including any faulty or home wines that will be used.

For homemade wines, pay the winemaker as follows: $30 per bottle of Gold Medal awarded wine; $20 per bottle for Silver Medal awarded wine; $10 for Bronze Medal awarded wine; and $5.00 for faulty wine (with fault identified).

Seek reimbursement for your out-of-pocket expenses in purchasing all wines and any shipping costs from your Chapter Treasurer. Provide all receipts to your Chapter Treasurer. Your Chapter Treasurer will then seek reimbursement from the other Chapters for their share of the costs.

If you have been tasked to do a tasting for the Annual General Meeting (AGM) then immediately contact the Guild Master to find out what your budget will be and also how many bottles of each wine you will need. The AGM typically has a higher budget than the other tastings.

PACKAGE THE WINES

The wines should be purchased and shipped at least three weeks before the presentation date. Put each wine in a paper sleeve and label them according to the Wine List (T1, A, B, C, etc.).

If you are putting together a wine flight for one of the following classes:

- Other Dry White
- Other Dry Red
- Country
- Aromatic White

be sure to include (on the paper bag) the various wine varietals (and blends) in the flight . . . ensuring that you have planned a wine flight specifically that, in doing so, would not disclose the “duplicate” wine.

For example, if you are preparing Aromatic White, you may disclose, on the paper sleeve covering the wine bottle, your flight contains the following: T1 Siegerrebe, A Malvasia, B Siegerrebe, C Viognier, D Malvasia, E Ortega, F Gewurztraminer, G Viognier. Of the 8 wines in the flight, only one wine would be a duplicate of another bottle in the flight. The other bottles would be wines made with the same grape varietal but made by different winemakers. Ensure the “duplicate” wine is not easily identifiable.

Paper sleeves are available for purchase at some liquor stores; ask for them when purchasing the wines. If the paper sleeves are not available or too expensive, consider purchasing brown paper lunch bags for this purpose. They work well for standard sized 750 ml wine bottles. Tape the top of the bag as close as possible to the top of the bottle. If there are distinguishing markings on the top of a corked bottle, remove the top of the shrink. On a screwcap bottle, tape the top to cover the branding. Also on screwcap bottles, ensure the tape does not hinder opening the bottle.

When you are including homemade wines in your presentation you are required to blend them to eliminate any inconsistencies in the different bottles, rebottle and then bag them.

The wines are now boxed for each Chapter. Ensure that adequate packing is in place to prevent breakage. Also include 17 copies of the wine list sealed in a brown envelope. Mark on the envelope “Wine List - Do Not Open Until the Tasting Has Been Completed.”

TRANSPORT THE WINES

Deliver your Chapter's box of wine to your Chapter Steward and then make arrangement to get the other boxes to the other Chapter Stewards. Shipping addresses for all chapters are included at the end of these instructions. It is highly recommended to avoid couriers to keep the costs down. The best option is to arrange for someone, that will be travelling to the area, to hand deliver the wines.

The following members may be contacted (in the order given) to see if they are travelling between Vancouver Island and the Mainland:

1. Ron Thorne – live in Duncan area and travels between the island and mainland on a regular basis; - contact Victoria Chapter Steward for Ron's contact Information
2. Yanick Nadeau – lives on the mainland and travels between the mainland and the island on occasion; - contact Mainland Chapter Steward for Yanick's contact information

3. Doug Markin – lives in Port Alberni and travels between Nanaimo and the mainland on occasion; - contact Nanaimo Chapter Steward for Doug's contact information
4. Other – if none of the above is available, contact your own Chapter members to see if anyone is travelling to/from the island and the mainland. If that does not provide a solution, contact the other two Chapter Stewards to seek their assistance (in canvassing their Chapter members)

If you have been tasked to do a presentation for the Annual General Meeting (AGM) then contact the Guild Master for shipping and/or delivery options.

If it is your responsibility to make sure that the boxes get there in time!

PUBLICATION OF WINE LIST

Following the tasting of your wine flight by all 3 Chapters, the Guild Webmaster will be in touch to obtain from you an electronic copy of your (templated) List of Wines for publication on the Guild website. This will assist future presenters for the class by knowing what wines were used to avoid repeating wines or themes for broad classes such as Other Dry White.

CHAPTER STEWARDS DUTIES

Assign a Qualified Judge to assist the Presenter with their duties. The role of the Qualified Judge is to act as a Mentor and to help guide the Presenter through the process.

Chapter Steward(s) will be responsible for receiving wines shipped by other Chapters. The bags must not be removed until the wines have been evaluated at a session. The Wine List should also remain sealed until after the judging is completed. Please print a couple of extra copies of the Presentation Notes to take to the tasting in the event someone has not read the notes beforehand or does not have e-mail.

The Chapter Steward will also supply:

- a. Wine Evaluation sheets; and
- b. Statistician's data sheets.

The most current forms are to be used, which are available on the Guild website.

CHAPTER TREASURER DUTIES

The Chapter Treasurer shall collect all receipts from the Presenter and then pay the Presenter for all of their costs in purchasing and shipping wines. The Chapter Treasurer shall then collect the necessary costs from the other Chapters.

PACKAGING OF WINES FOR TRANSPORT

It is important to ensure wines are properly wrapped and protected for shipping purposes. In most cases, it is possible to arrange for the delivery/transport of wines by Guild members that may be travelling from the Mainland to Nanaimo and Victoria or vice versa.

AT MINIMUM, ensure that the wines are presented in the following manner:

Ensure bottles are wrapped in brown paper bags with the top of the bags taped closed (only a small amount of tape is required to achieve this goal). Be sure to allow sufficient space to allow for easy opening of the wine bottle.

Identify each bottle with a black marking pen (i.e. T1, A, B, C, etc.)

Put the bagged bottles in a proper wine box with dividers to ensure the bottles do not rub directly against one another. This will help to prevent damage during transportation

ADDITIONAL CARE is required in packaging of contents and labelling of boxes if using a commercial shipper such as FedEx or UPS, etc.

ALWAYS contact the recipient prior to shipping to confirm convenient dates and times and locations for shipping.

Clearly mark each shipping box, identifying its contents, if being transported by a Guild member. If being shipped by a commercial shipper be sure to use complete delivery addresses and contact phone numbers.
